Philanthropy at the Council on Foreign Relations

The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) receives charitable contributions from a variety of private sources, including its members, corporations, and foundations. As the premier foreign policy organization in the United States, CFR plays a leading role in contributing to the intellectual momentum that is needed to address a broad spectrum of current and emerging issues. Unrestricted gifts to the Annual Fund help ensure the organization's independence and nonpartisanship. Gifts to CFR are tax deductible to the full extent allowed by U.S. law and, in the case of individual members, are contributed over and above annual membership dues.

Annual Fund

Gifts to the Annual Fund account for 15 percent of the organization's operating budget each year. This critical unrestricted revenue provides support for the Council's meetings, research, website, and other activities. The Annual Fund surpassed $10.6 million this year, with 1,617 members participating. This year we added a third Annual Fund leadership group, the Century Society, which formally recognizes those who give $100,000 annually; 19 members qualified at this level. The Chairman's Circle (gifts from $50,000 to $99,999) had 66 members, and the Harold Pratt Associates (gifts from $25,000 to $49,999) numbered 128. CFR is honored to acknowledge those members who supported the 2021–2022 Annual Fund in the list that follows. Many Council members leveraged their gifts by participating in matching gift programs, and sponsoring corporations and foundations are recognized here as well.

Operating Grants and Endowment, Restricted and Special Gifts

The Council on Foreign Relations is grateful to the many foundations, corporations, individuals, and other benefactors that have provided support for specific projects and initiatives this year. The David Rockefeller Studies Program, the Council's award-winning website CFR.org, the Education Program, the Meetings Program, and the National Program were just some beneficiaries of these gifts. Endowment gifts for fellowships, special lectures, symposia, and various named events ensure that these activities remain on the Council's agenda in perpetuity. The Council is pleased to recognize the following contributors of these special gifts.
